Dragons

Read some dragon stories. Pay attention to how the author describes the dragon's habitat. With a partner, or group, brainstorm what needs to be included in the habitat.

Group Members

Describe a dragon's habitat according to the books you have read, or have had read to you. Skim through the books if necessary. Use Post-It notes or strips of paper to mark passages in the books to support your answers. Be as detailed as you can.

Think about the features of the dragon's habitat. If dragons were real, where in the world do you think they would survive? Explain your answers.

Draw a picture of a dragon and its habitat.
